1. IRS-imposed HSA limits for 2023: The 2023 annual HSA contribution limit for individuals with self-only HDHP coverage is $3,850 (a $200 increase from 2022), & the limit for individuals with family HDHP coverage is $7,750 (a $450 increase from 2022). Annual catch-up contributions for those 55 & over: $1,000 (remains unchanged).

2. IRS does not impose HRA limits; limits are set by employer.

3. Employee contribution limits for 2023 for FSAs cannot exceed $3,050 per IRS Rules. Employer contributions may not discriminate in favor of highly compensated individuals. Health care reform limits employer contributions to $610 per year or an arrangement in which employer contributions will not exceed the employee's contributions, such as a one-to-one match, up to $3,050.

4. HSA, HRA, & FSA debit cards are automatically restricted for use with medical service providers & for items purchased at retail that are identified as qualified medical expenses based on electronic inventory control codes.

5. HSA distributions subject to IRS audit to prove they do not exceed out-of-pocket qualified medical expenses since HSA opened.
